

OUR HISARLAR INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM POLICY;

We undertake

To provide products and services delivering “First Time Right” products with the highest quality and reliability by prioritizing sustainable customer satisfaction, developing and increasing needs and expectations of our customers subject to the related legislation, standards and the special conditions we have specified,

To ensure constant improvement of the personnel with their participation without compensating training on the matters of quality and environmental and work safety in all business processes in order to achieve the bet business results and to achieve its goals,

To make sure that pollution is avoided by minimizing and insure the recycling and proper removal thereof first and thus saving on energy by protecting natural resources,

To prioritize energy efficiency, respect for mankind and environment in the production activities, designs, purchasing activities and investments within the body of its activities,

To establish a healthy, safe and work environment that respects the environment by getting the adverse effects of our activities on all our stakeholders and the society by carry out the risk analysis thereof; to develop preventive approaches against possible impairments of health or injuries and improve such constantly,

To provide the support required for the performance of the activities of all of our suppliers, involvement of all Business Partners, personnel conscious of the Integrated management systems,

To increase cooperations to be formed with neighboring facilities, competent authorities and local governments on the matters of Health-Safety-Environment,

To prevent professional diseases, work accidents and adverse environmental effects that might result from our activities; to comply with national and international requirements and other requirements relating to environmetal dimensions, energy use and work safety risks,

To follow up and comply with all the environmental, health, work legislations, regulations and laws and inform the society on the activities thereof,

To provide the safety of equipment (products and employees) and safety of product (product safety, customer complaints, taking the necessary actions for returns) in all activities and production stages.

CEO / JAGAN KURIAN